

Resinol will heal this rash

I never worry if I have a little rash or other eruption break out—I just put on a bit of Resinol Ointment. That takes out the itching and burning instantly, and soon clears the trouble away. I learned of Resinol Ointment through our doctor prescribing it for my brother. Tom had been almost frantic with eczema for months but that ointment healed his skin like magic.

Resinol Ointment contains nothing that could irritate or break the tenderest skin. It is an excellent soothing dressing for poison-bites, sunburn, scald, eczema, etc. For trial free, write to Dept. 134, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Sold by all druggists.

TSE-NE-GAT, BAD INDIAN, ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Plute, Who Resisted Arrest Until Gen. Scott Won Him Over, Arraigned in Denver Court.

Denver, Col., July 4.—The trial of Tse-Ne-Gat (Everest Hatch), a Plute Indian, charged with the murder of Juan Chacon, a herder, was begun here today in Federal Court. About forty witnesses, many of whom are Indians, have been summoned to testify in the case. The killing took place in March, 1914, in Montezuma County, Col.

Efforts by a posse of United States deputies under United States Marshal Aquila Nebeker, last February, to arrest Tse-Ne-Gat resulted in armed resistance by recalcitrant Plutes led by "Old Polk," father of the defendant. Several Indians and a member of the posse of deputies were killed in battles near Bluff, Utah.

Gen. Hugh L. Scott, Chief of Staff of the United States Army, was sent from Washington after a truce had been obtained, and journeying only with his orderly and guides sought out the Indians in their mountain rendezvous and induced them to accompany him to Salt Lake City. Several Indians were later released, but Tse-Ne-Gat was brought to Denver and has been in a sanitarium awaiting trial. According to physicians he is suffering from tuberculosis.

USED CHILD IN THEFTS. Mother Had Girl Act as Lookout—Says She Was Hungry. Mrs. Marian Donovan admitted in the Court of Special Sessions, Brooklyn, today that she had used her eight-year-old daughter Helen as an assistant in the theft of two bolts of cloth from a department store Saturday.

Falls From Fire Escape. Jacob Schaefer, eight years old, of No. 138 Essex Street, this afternoon fell through the opening of the fourth floor fire escape. He struck the second floor and bounded to the street. A man tried to catch the boy, but only succeeded in breaking his fall. Dr. Formers of Gouverneur Hospital was called and took a number of stitches in the boy's scalp, and, after an examination, said the youngster had sustained no serious injury.
